

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I bow my head with reverence before the ‘Almighty’, the merciful and compassionate, whose grace, glory and blessings allowed me to complete this endeavor.

I feel privileged and express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. Mool Chand Sharma, the Vice Chancellor, Central University of Haryana who motivated us to indulge in research work with a multidisciplinary approach and created multiple opportunities for us to get exposed to a sound research methodology, pedagogy and recent trends in academics.

I express my deepest gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Bir Singh Yadav, Associate Professor, Department of English, Central University of Haryana, Mahendergarh, for his valuable guidance, inputs and insightful comments while I was working on this dissertation. His deep knowledge of the subject and sense of dedication besides polite and good nature encouraged me and it will be a part of my memories forever. I will remain grateful for his workaholic sensibility and creative suggestions for my research work. It would not have been possible to complete this work without his blessings.

I express my hearty thanks to Prof. (Mrs.) Rajul Bhargava, Head of the department who inspired me to study the works of Uma Parameswaran. She not only helped me in selection of the topic, but also stood by me at every step of my research. Her unceasing encouragement, inspiration, precise and constructive criticism and meticulous suggestions throughout the course of this investigation enabled me in executing my research work.

I extend my thanks to Dr. Sanjiv kumar and Dr. Ritu Tomer Rathi, Dept. of English for the constant support, encouragement, amiable nature and for their contribution in giving a proper shape to my research paper.

I take this opportunity to convey my gratefulness to all the faculty members and non-teaching staff of Central University of Haryana for their support and suggestions throughout my research work. I am also thankful to the entire staff of the library of Central University of Haryana, Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi, for providing me an easy access to the required study material.

No word can suffice my feelings of gratitude to my respected parents, whose blessings, immense patience and encouragement were the constant source of inspiration during the entire period of study. I am thankful for the love and affection of my brothers, sister and brother-in-law showered upon me. Special thanks to my little niece Kavya who has been a source of immense strength that goes beyond expression.

I offer my heartiest appreciation to my friends Poonam, Pooja, Preeti, Sanju and Indu for the firm support and time to time gearing up. Their nice company will be a part of my memories.

Last but not least I am thankful to all those who have helped me directly or indirectly and whose names, I forgot to mention in the endeavor.
