

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Chanchal Kumar Sharma, my supervisor for inspiration, encouragement, motivation and above all sincere suggestions at crucial moments.

Upon having reached this triumphant moment of presenting my thesis, I feel highly obliged to Dr. Chanchal Kumar Sharma for bestowing upon me the honour of being my guide and making me take up this challenging job of undertaking this project.

I would have found it almost difficult to complete the dissertation without the motivation and expert guidance of Dr. Chanchal Kumar Sharma for whom I have deep sense of gratitude.

I avail this opportunity to express my special gratitude to the Vice Chancellor, Prof. U.P. Sinha, Registrar of the University, and all the members of the faculty of Political Science, for always encouraging me in all my academic endeavours.

It gives me immense pleasure to thank all the respondents, City Planning and Development Officer of Narnaul, Narnaul District Library office, District statistical officer Narnaul, MDU, Rohtak library staff and staff of Central University Haryana for giving me all the necessary suggestions and help.

I am grateful indebted to all my friends, research students of the departments of Political Science, Economics and English who commented on my research work, which helped me to enrich the research work, for their sincere help and moral support. I would like to thank especially Mr. Balwan Singh Katala, Dr. Vikram Munday, Dr. Satpal Singh, Mr. Satrughan, Gaurav, Ravinder, Prashant, Lokesh, Sanjeet, Dinesh, Sandeep Bodhh and Dinesh E-lab Assistant who gave me valuable supports and encouragement during this period of time.

And it would not be eulogistic if I tender my sincere thanks to my parents, my wife Mrs. Ratna Chopra and my children Nancy and Jitain Chopra for their continuous support, and inspiration for keeping me in high spirit, which has made possible the completion of my work. I must not forget to thank all those from whom I have learnt the lessons of my life in all the fields.
