

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude towards my supervisor Dr. Jitendra Kumar Saini, who has been the guiding light in my journey to achieve this goal. It has been a privilege to have worked under his supervision. I owe an enormous debt of thanks to my supervisor whose gimlet eye turned the first draft of my thesis finally into this far better thesis. His insightful comments significantly improved my thesis and prevented me from making a public spectacle of myself. I thank him for his time and attention when the world was demanding so much from each one of us.

I am extremely grateful to Hon. Vice Chancellor, Central University of Haryana for providing adequate facilities during the course of research work. I would also acknowledge University of Delhi and Bhabha Atomic Research Center (BARC) for providing instrumentation facility for my research.

Special thanks to the support, encouragement and advice extended by Dr. Gunjan Goel, Head of Microbiology Department, Central University of Haryana. I thank Dr. Surender Singh, Dr. Puja, Dr. Manoj Dr. Avijit and Dr. Vinod for providing invaluable research, expertise and feedback.

A special note of thanks goes to Dr. Eiteman, University of Georgia, USA for sharing his invaluable research expertise and new research techniques which helped me extend the domains of my field of study in such short time. Working with him has been a wonderful learning experience in my Ph.D. journey. I am grateful to have found great friends in my colleagues at University of Georgia, USA. Hemshikha, Sarada and Rashmi, thank you for your unending support and making our time together memorable.

I must place on records my gratitude towards Dr. Kavish Kumar Jain, for his wholehearted help and support. His immense scientific knowledge, analytical approach and constant encouragement helped me finish the herculean task of finishing my Ph.D.

I wish to genuinely thank my colleagues, Vikram, Amanjot, Prakriti, Aayush and Himanshu, for their constant support and generous help whenever I needed it.

A special note of thanks goes to my friends Rajkamal Vibhuti and Shalini and Tathagat with whom I shared most of the memories of my stay in Mahendergarh.

Last but not the least I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my parents my sister and my brother (Ram) for their unwavering support, as well as their willingness to let me leave home for so long, cannot go without mention. I am grateful for everything they have done and survived all this with their sense of humour and their love intact.

A sweet thanks to my extended family in Mahendergarh, Dr. Vikas Mohan, Mrs. Harshika, Mrs. Reetu Saini and Advik Saini for cheering me up always in their cute little ways.
