

Acknowledgements

First of all, I express my gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. Sanjiv Kumar for his constant guidance during the M.Phil. Programme. He is the person who motivated and encouraged me to pursue research in the area of interest. I am also thankful to other teachers of the department of English and Foreign Languages, Dr.Sudeep Kumar, Dr. Manoj Kumar, Dr. Rinu and Dr. Snehsata for their academic support. Moreover, I am thankful to Dr. Shah Jahan for encouraging me during my research. Thanks to my uncles Abdul Kabir, Mohd Bashir and Choudhary Mohammed Nazeer for their fatherly care. I am thankful to my elder brothers Dr Basharat Ahamed Shaheen and Javid Iqbal who supported me financially and morally during my research. Thanks to Waseem Akram and sister who have always pray for my bright future. Love of Humara, Sumara and Mamuna is also special for me. Thanks to my cousins Choudhary Naseer Ahamed (Nishu) Mohd Younes, Naiz Ahamed, Haroon Bashir, Zaheer Abbas, Imu, Sajju and Zulfi for their love. A very special thanks to my friends in the department, Mohd Rafi, Rajat Kumar and Jasvir Kumar who supported me a lot by discussing my research topic for fresh inputs and analysis. I would like to extend my gratitude to my seniors Ankita Sharma, Priyanka and Sunita who helped and encouraged me to complete this research project. I affectionately acknowledge the support of my school days friends Mohd Asharaf, Sharukh Bhatt and Mohd Tayyab ji who have always been associated with me. Moreover I am thankful to Ani Vineet (Malu) who inspired me to do this research. Thanks to Abdul Mateen and Abdul Ghani who gave me their precious time for interviews. Their border experience helped me to understand the trauma of Kashmir in a better way. Finally, I express my sincerest gratitude to Almighty Allah who provided me the opportunity to pursue my M.Phil. programme from Central University of Haryana.
