

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, let me bow myself in reverence to Almighty Allah - the omnipotent, for it, is indeed his blessings alone which provided me enough zeal to complete this work successfully. I feel much pleasure to express a deep sense of gratitude and admiration for my supervisor Dr. Rinu for keeping a discerning eye over the study, providing valuable guidance and help to overcome the hurdles throughout this work. In fact, individual efforts cannot bear-out such a successful study unless there is someone for guidance.

I am highly grateful to the Head of the Department Dr. Sanjiv Kumar and other faculty members Dr. Manoj Kumar Vidyalanker, Dr. Sudeep Kumar, Dr. Snahsata, who had provided me invaluable suggestions during my study.

I owe an expression of thanks to my seniors Niharika Sharma, Sonam Khajuria, Mohd. Shabin, Radhika and Siddartha Partap for their cooperation, encouragement, and multifaceted discussions. I would also like to send my gratitude to Dr. Shah Jahan, who supported me throughout this time. I would also like to thanks my dear classmates and juniors Tariq Mehmood, Jasvir, Rajat, Anuradha Panday, Puneet Kaur, Anaswara, Suchi, Seema, and Aashirwad.

I would like to express my appreciation for the Library Staff of the Central University of Haryana, who has helped me procure material for this project.

Last but not least I am delighted to concede the contribution of my family in each and every endeavor of my life. My family has lit the flame of learning in me. In fact, I feel short of vocabulary to thank my father for his relentless faith and support in my pronouncements. I feel short of words to record my indebtedness to my mother, Mrs. Rehamat Bi, the lady who instigated me to society through her endless love, affection, care, and support. I record my profound sense of gratefulness to my sisters and brothers whose affection, devotion, and constant encouragement helped me to gain this success. I would also like to extend my love to my beloved nephews Basharat, Sakib, Shoaib, and Usman and nieces Sobia and Asia. Finally, let me thank all my well-wishers whose names though have not been mentioned yet they are always there deep in my heart.
